Failure to comply with any requirement in this clause will not relieve the relevant Tenderer of responsibility to complete the Contract in accordance with its terms and conditions and in particular, the price or rate Tendered by the Tenderer.

Submission of a Tender without any qualification or statement regarding interpretation shall be construed as an acknowledgment and acceptance on the part of the Tenderers of BSC interpretation.

The Principal will not be responsible for the payment of any expenses or losses incurred by the Tenderer in:

10. Opening of Tenders

Tenders will be opened after the Closing Time. Tenders will not be opened publicly.

11. Tender Evaluation Process

Tenders will be evaluated by reference to the sound contracting principles in section 104 of the Local Government Act 2009, namely:

- a) value for money;
- b) open and effective competition;
- c) the development of competitive local business and industry;
- d) environmental protection; and
- e) ethical behaviour and fair dealing.

Tenders will also be evaluated using the information provided in the Tenderer's Submission Form.

If a Tenderer's Submission Form for a Tender is not fully completed or does not include all supporting documents and materials required by the Conditions of Tender or the Tenderer's Submission Form, the Tender may be rejected.

In evaluating Tenders, the Principal may:

- a) require presentations from Tenderers;
- b) conduct interviews with Tenderer's staff and subcontractors;
- c) contact Tenderer's referees;
- d) investigate a Tenderer's structure and management, and that of any relevant subsidiary or related corporation;
- e) make its own assessment of the Tenderer's ability to comply with the terms and conditions of the Contract at the Tendered price; and
- f) verify that the Tenderer holds all necessary permits, licences, approvals and certifications necessary to enable it lawfully to comply with the terms and conditions of the Contract.

Tenderers must give the members of the evaluation panel of the Principal any cooperation and assistance reasonably requested of them to facilitate consideration of their Tenders.

Compliance criteria for the Request for Tender are specified in Item 3.1 of the Respondent's Submission Form. Each Tender will be assessed on a Yes/No basis as to whether each of the compliance criterion is satisfied by the Tenderer or not. If a Tender is assessed as "No" in respect of a criterion, the Tender may be rejected.

Qualitative criteria for the Request for Tender are specified in Item 3.2 of the Respondent's Submission Form. The qualitative criteria may be weighted to indicate the relative degree of importance that the Principal places on the technical aspects of the supply of the goods and/or services. Each Tenderer must address each of the qualitative criteria specified in Item 3.2 of the Respondent's Submission Form. If a Tenderer fails to address any of the qualitative criteria in Item 3.2 of the Respondent's Submission Form, its Tender may be rejected.

Following the assessment, the Principal may elect to invite a party or number of parties to provide a presentation to support their Tenders or complete a best and final offer.

12. Clarifications and Variations

The Principal may issue to Tenderers before the Closing Time:

- a) additional information; and
- b) information clarifying or correcting information previously provided to assist them in preparing their Tenders.

If the Principal issues information to Tenderers under this clause, each Tenderer must take the information into account in the preparation of its Tender.

After the Closing Time, the Principal may (without limiting its options):

- a) request clarification or further information from any Tenderer;
- b) invite all Tenderers to change their Tenders in response to an alteration to the Specification or any of the terms and conditions of the Contract; and
- c) negotiate with one or more Tenderers upon any aspect of their Tenders.

13. Commissions and Incentives

A Tender will not be considered if anybody offers or gives anything to a Councillor of the Principal, or any officer or agent of the Principal, as an inducement for the purpose of seeking to influence the manner in which the Tender is evaluated or the Contract awarded.

14. Confidentiality

The Tenderer:

- a) acknowledges that the confidential information is sensitive and valuable, and will remain at all times the property of the Principal;
- b) must not use the confidential information for any purpose other than preparing its Tender;
- c) must not copy any material comprising or containing confidential information, other than where (and then only to the extent that) copying is necessary to enable it to prepare its Tender;
- d) must allow access to the confidential information by relevant persons only to the extent necessary to enable the Tender to be prepared; and
- e) must obtain the Principal's written consent before disclosing confidential information to a person other than a relevant person.

The consent of the Principal to disclosure of the confidential information by the Tenderer may be given or withheld on such terms and conditions as the Principal considers appropriate.

The Tenderer's obligation under this clause continues after closure of Tenders and award of the Contract.

The Principal reserves the right to retrieve from a Relevant Person any confidential information held by that person, subject to the Principal having given written notice to the Tenderer in writing that the Relevant Person is to be denied access to the confidential information.

Failure or delay by the Principal in enforcing strict compliance with this clause or pursuing a remedy under this clause will not constitute a waiver or implied variation of the entitlement or remedy.

This clause will not apply to an item of confidential information where the Tenderer can establish that:

- a) the item has been transferred to the public domain through no fault of the Tenderer; or

- b) the item was already in the Tenderer's possession when it was supplied or made available by the Principal, and not acquired directly or indirectly from the Principal; or
- c) it has received from the Principal written notification that the Principal no longer requires the Tenderer to keep the item confidential.

15. Acceptance of Tender

The Principal will not be bound to accept the lowest or any tender.

The Principal may accept a Tender from a Tenderer by giving written notice in the form of a letter of acceptance to the Tenderer who submitted the Tender to the Principal.

The Contract will not come into existence until the Principal has given written notice in the form of a letter of acceptance to the Tenderer.

When the Contract comes into existence the Tenderer becomes the Contractor for the purposes of the General Conditions of Contract.

The Principal reserves the right to accept a Tender in part or in whole.

16. Right to Information and Disclosure

The RTI Act provides members of the public with a legally enforceable right to access documents held by Queensland Government agencies (including Local Governments).

The RTI Act requires that documents be disclosed upon request, unless the documents are exempt or, on balance, disclosure is contrary to the public interest.

Information provided by the Tenderer is potentially subject to disclosure to third parties pursuant to the RTI Act.

If disclosure under the RTI Act, or general disclosure of information provided by the Tenderer, would be of substantial concern to the Tenderer, because it would disclose trade secrets, information of commercial value, the purpose or results of research or other information of a confidential nature, including Personal Information, this should be indicated by the Tenderer in its Tender. The Principal cannot guarantee that any information provided by the Tenderer will be protected from disclosure under the RTI Act.

The Tenderer must familiarise itself with the relevant provisions of the RTI Act dealing with the requirements for disclosure of information by agencies, and the grounds on which access to information may be refused.

The Principal accepts no responsibility for the accuracy or adequacy of any information it provides to Tenderers concerning the content or effect of the RTI Act.

The Principal reserves the right to disclose, by publication by means of media of its choosing upon award of any Contract details of the name and address of the Contractor, a description of the relevant goods, services or goods and services, the commencement date of the Contract and the Contract Price or value.

17. Ownership of Tenders

Each Respondent's Submission Form (including all supporting documentation and materials submitted by a Tenderer as part of, or in support of, a Tender) becomes the property of the Principal on submission and will not be returned to the Tenderer.

However, the Tenderer shall retain copyright and other intellectual property rights in respect of the Tender except to the extent specified in the Contract.

The Principal may reproduce the Tender for the purposes of evaluation.

18. Information Privacy

The Principal is bound by the provisions of the Information Privacy Act 2009.

By submitting a Tender, the Tenderer warrants that it has obtained the consent of each individual whose Personal Information is included in the Tender for:

- (a) the inclusion of their Personal Information in the Tender;
- (b) the use of the Personal Information by the Principal for the purpose of evaluating and awarding the Tender; and
- (c) the disclosure of the Personal Information to other parties (including professional advisors) as may be involved in assisting the Principal with the evaluation of the Tender.

The Tenderer must indemnify the Principal against any claim, damage or loss (including legal costs and expenses) that the Principal may incur as a consequence of a breach by the Tenderer of the warranty above.

Any Personal Information exchanged between the Tenderer and the Principal must be dealt with in accordance with the Information Privacy Act 2009.

The Tenderer must immediately notify the Principal upon becoming aware of any breach of this clause.

19. In-House Offers

The Principal reserves the right to submit an in-house Offer.
